RetailMeNot will also match coupons and offers with the circular solution to help ensure consumers maximize their savings.

- Mass reach through all RetailMeNot touch points: mobile, tablet and desktop
- High-resolution imagery to inspire the shopper
- Integrated coupons to maximize savings and sales
- Built-in maps to find nearby stores
- Detailed attribution and path-to-purchase analytics to prove results
- Cost-per-click pricing ensures that advertisers only pay when consumers engage with the Circular

The Market Opportunity

In 2013, eMarketer reported that the U.S. retail industry's advertising spending on paid digital media would hit $9.42 billion in 2013 and rise to $13.50 billion by 2017, for a 10.5 percent compound annual growth rate (CAGR). That same year, the catalog industry reported $110 billion in catalog sales.[1]

"Retailers are spending billions every year to reach a large number of consumers in the United States with antiquated printed catalogs, circulars and free-standing inserts that do little to prove their investment returns. RetailMeNot's Circulars and Showcase™ solutions represent a future of more cost-effective and attributable marketing solutions that we believe will increase sales and engagement for retailers and brands," said Jag Bath, senior vice president of product at RetailMeNot, Inc. "We're excited to provide another opportunity for our partners to attract RetailMeNot's growing base of users."
