

RetailMeNot Earns The Good Housekeeping Seal

AUSTIN, Texas, July 25, 2016 /PRNewswire/ -- RetailMeNot (www.retailmenot.com), a leading digital offers destination that helps consumers save money, is proud announce they are the first shopping app to have earned the Good Housekeeping Seal, a trusted and highly regarded emblem for millions of consumers.

The Good Housekeeping Institute tests thousands of products a year from categories such as automotive, household, beauty, clothing, cleaning tools and more. Good Housekeeping's scientists, tech analysts and researchers are expanding coverage and categories to include even more digital products.

The RetailMeNot website and app were extensively tested by the engineers at the Good Housekeeping Institute, and the functionality of the service was vetted to ensure it was easy to use and performed as expected. After a rigorous evaluation, the RetailMeNot service and app met the Institute's criteria and was qualified to earn the coveted Seal.

"Everyone has to shop. Whether you love it or not, you always want to get the best for your money. This is what GH has been about for the past 130 years—searching for, testing and featuring the very best of the best," says Jane Francisco, Editor in Chief of Good Housekeeping. "We are thrilled that RetailMeNot has passed the GH Institute Technology Lab's rigorous evaluation and earned the Good Housekeeping Seal. What better way than to layer GH's quality and curation with special, exclusive steals and deals! RetailMeNot is the perfect partner to help us do this."

With the app, you can explore the best deals nearby, redeem offers from your phone, and save at many of your favorite stores. On average, users report savings of $20 per transaction. There are 500,000 deals for 50,000+ stores and multiple ways to save: shopping offers, product discounts, storewide sales, discounted gift cards and digital rebates.

"It is an honor to be recognized as the first shopping app to earn the Good Housekeeping Seal," says Marissa Tarleton, chief marketing officer, North America, RetailMeNot. "The Seal is known for sending a clear message to consumers: 'you can trust this brand.' While millions of consumers trust our brand every day to find them the best savings options during their shopping journeys, we are pleased to have such a reputable media brand share the same confidence in our capabilities and grant us this distinguished emblem."
